Eagle on the par 4 - 6th Hole – Congratulations to big hitter Bob Seymour.

The Ball Competition for the day went down to 32 points on the count back.

On Thursday 27th saw 130 players compete in the Stableford Competition, with some great scores being recorded.

“A” Grade was taken out by Big Hitter Rod Butler with 39 points. He has personally told me that he would have performed significantly better if it wasn't from the sledging from his playing partners. More details of his win can be seen on Rods Facebook. Runner up was Trent Park with 38 points on the C/B from Stephen Lill. In 4th position was James Saxby with 37 points.

“B” Grade was taken out by Bob Moore with 42 points. This was followed by Gary Kennedy with 39 points on the C/B from Jim Sheeley, I was informed that Jim never missed a fairway today and was just unlucky with several of his putts. In 4th position was Peter Fleming with 38 points

“C” Grade was highly contested with some great scores being recorded. The final winner was Peter Morrissey with 43 points closely followed by Greg Frost with 42 points. This was closely followed by Darrell Horn with 41 points and Peter Fleming with 39 points.

Nearest the Pin on the 13th was won by Mick McDonnell with 73cm, the 17th Stephen Lill was the closest with 55cm.

The Ball Competition for the day went down to 34 points on the count back.

On Sunday's 30th October Stableford event saw a field of 35 players compete.
