On Saturday the 15th the second round of the 2ball stroke championship was played. By all reports the course was presented in top condition and the greens hard and fast.

This must have suited the combination of Chris Burdekin and Andrew Marriott with their score of 137 to win Division 1. The Division 1 nett winners were Steve Wilson and Doug Walsh with a 124.

Geoff Whellum and Steve Kostrewski won the Division 2 scratch with 161 and the Division 2 nett winners were Will Stoneman and Paul Stoneman with 126.

The Saturday Division 1 scratch event was won by Bowen Small and Lachie Charnock with 69.

The Division 2 scratch was won by the father and son combination of David and Tony Bennett with a 78.

The Division 1 nett winners were Larry Holmes and John Gorsuch with a 60, runners up were Bowen Small and Lachie Charnock with 61 and third place went to Ben Huckstadt and Craig Trappel with 62.

Andy Graham and Sean Gibson with 60 won the Division 2 nett on a countback from Steve Thornton and Chris Motum with Will Stoneman and Paul Stoneman with 61 running third.

The ball competition went to 67 on a count back.

The Thursday Pro Shop competition attracted a good field and the A grade winner was Mitch McPhee with 35pts. Mitch just seems to do enough to claim the major prize. Runner up was Bryan Gulliver also with 35pts and Matt Moroney, Blake Palmer and John Skinner all having 33pts.

Morning player Garry Minotti with 36pts won the B grade on a count back from Andrew Robertson, Jim Sheelley with 35pts edged out Mick Sarquis and Brad Hicks to claim the third place prize.

Tony Bennett had the day's best score of 40pts to win C grade. Geoff Towns ran second with 38pts on a count back from Rick Grabau and Noel Hughes ran third with 37pts.

The two nearest the pin winners were Rick Geissier and Brett Lovett.

The ball competition went to 30pts on a count back.

The Sunday Pro Shop competition was won by Blake Palmer with 40pts, Blake playing off a plus 2 handicap is in great form. Runner up was Matthew Dwight with 39pts and third place went to Will Stoneman with 37pts.

The nearest the pin winner was Mark Curran and the ball competition went to 30pts.
